

Overview of Kumi Application Questions

2026-2027

Thank you for your interest in Kumi Justice Retreats! These questions are intended for us to get to know you, your strengths, and how you might contribute to and grow within this cohort. Please aim to write 100-200 words for each required question.

Questions? Reach out to Kumi Senior Manager Rebecca Ezersky at rezersky@movingtraditions.org

1. Why are you interested in participating in Kumi: Justice Retreats? What skills do you hope to develop and/or improve upon?
2. What will make you an excellent Kumi: Justice Retreats participant? Please tell us about personal strengths, leadership opportunities, or personal projects that you believe would be a meaningful addition to this cohort.
3. What do you bring to a group that you're most proud of, and what are the challenges for you in being in a group?
4. Moving Traditions is committed to making our programs representative of the wide diversity that exists among American Jews. Is there anything else you would like us to know about you, your experiences, or your identity? (optional)
5. Is there anything else you would like us to know as we review your application? (optional)
